Josephine Gaëtane Minerd received for the first time the mystery of reconciliation on Saturday, April 26 in Latrobe, PA at the conclusion of a preparatory retreat. Alongside our ECF team, Josephine was formed by lead catechist, Ms. Anita Wright, in the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd, a national program in the Montessori model which develops the contemplation and enjoyment of God. Josephine's love of her Ruthenian Faith tradition became a draw for other children as well as their parents as together they learned more about the depths and riches of our great patrimony. May God grant Josephine many years of peace, health and happiness!! Congratulations to Josephine!!

ECF Catechetical Year Sunday, May 4 served as the final day of our 2024-25 ECF Catechetical Program. The ECF staff and children would like to thank the members of our parish for your prayers, generosity and overall support for our program. Thank you to the parents, children, staff, and Fr. Kyp for all of your participation and support. Parents, children and staff are invited to an end of year celebration on Saturday, May 31 following Liturgy in the Social Ministry room. May everyone enjoy a happy, safe and healthy summer!!
